

ACHENA Continuing Professional Development Application

Continuing Professional Development (CPD): ACHENA approves workshops, seminars and other educational programs for CPD credits when the presenter(s) demonstrate that the content is specifically designed to meet the continuing education needs of the professional homeopath (CCH or other designation) that has completed foundational studies and is in practice. To be approved for CPD credits, presenters must demonstrate that the material is distinct from foundational studies and would assist the practicing professional homeopath is more effectively working with clients.

1. Name of Presenter(s):

2. Provide a brief narrative description of your presentation or panel discussion. (This may be the same description as the one to be listed in the conference brochure.)

3. List 2-4 learning objectives for the presentation or panel discussion. Learning objects should be written from the perspective of what the professional homeopath will be able to do after your presentation. Learning objectives should begin with action words. Examples of acceptable measurable action words include: explain, demonstrate, analyze, formulate, discuss, compare, differentiate, describe, name, assess, evaluate, identify, design, define or list. (Note: to understand or to learn are not measurable objectives).
